

Chef Milani and June

Chef Milani Will Appear at Ralph's

Chef Milani, star of his own TV show, and June, who appears with him will visit Ralph's new store, 2205 Rosecrans at Van Ness in Gardena, today and tomorrow, from 1 to 3 P.M.

They will conduct their popular quizgame, "It's in the Bag," a feature of their daily TV show, Monday through Friday over Channel 7, 9:15 to 10 A.M.

No special knowledge is required, and it is lots of fun! Right answers win valuable prizes such as wrist watches and toys. There are consolation prizes, so every one whose number is called wins something worth while.

Chef Milani does not forget the children, so on Saturday, June 21, he is bringing three free Kiddy Rides to the parking lot of Ralph's Rosecrans Store, from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M.

Testimonial to Bartlett Slated Here June 22

Reservations are now being accepted for the testimonial dinner in honor of City Clerk A. H. Bartlett, recently elected to his 10th consecutive term.

The veteran city official will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be held June 22 at 6 p.m. in the Moose Hall, 1744 W. Carson st.

A native of New York, Bartlett came to Torrance in 1912 on assignment of J. S. Torrance, who later founded the city which bears his name.

Until elected city clerk in 1929, Bartlett was an accountant, and later founded the first insurance firm in the city.

He and his wife, Jessie, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last year.

Bartlett was one of the organizers of the Chamber of Commerce, and is a member and past officer of numerous local organizations.

Reservations for the dinner can be made by phoning the city hall, FA 8-5310, extension 2, before June 19.

Councilman Nicholas O. Drule will be master of ceremonies at the dinner.

Brown to Address Attorneys

Attorney Anthony Nizetich, secretary of the Harbor Bar Association, announced today that Edmund G. Brown, state attorney general and Democratic candidate for governor, will appear in San Pedro's Hacienda Hotel Friday evening, June 20, to make what is billed as a "non-political" address on the subject of legal problems in California.

Nizetich revealed that members of the Long Beach, Compton, South Bay and Inglewood Bar Associations will appear as the guests of the San Pedro legal group in a joint meeting slated to get under way at 7:30 p.m.

Retiring El Camino College Head to Leave for Northern California

Forty-two years of service to public education on the Pacific Coast will be climaxed June 30 when Dr. and Mrs. Forrest G. Murdock reverse a southern progression to make their permanent home in Aptos, Calif.

For the past 11 years, Dr. Murdock has served as president of El Camino College, the institution which he helped to organize from a swamp-like site into one of the nation's most beautiful campuses.

Pepperdine College, where the veteran college administrator was awarded the honorary degree of doctor of law on June 8.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Murdock are natives of the state of Washington, where he started his teaching career more than four decades ago. They came to California when he accepted a position as principal of Fresno High School.

The Murdock's made their home in mid-California area for the first time when they moved to San Jose, where he was principal of San Jose High School. The San Jose area and the nearby mountain and coastlands became a favorite spot at this time.

The educator and his family left San Jose when he accepted the position of superintendent of the Centinela Valley Union High School district with offices in Inglewood, where the Murdock's have made their home at 3428 W. 80th st., for the past 13 years. As president of one of the nation's largest junior colleges, Forrest G. Murdock saw enrollment grow from 1400 to almost 10,000 in a span of 11 years. An original faculty of 33 has grown to more than 200 and a college divided among three high schools has developed into a 90-acre campus which is entirely debt free under the unique pay-as-you-go plan of financing advocated by college administrative pioneers.

Although he will be the president of El Camino College and the legal superintendent of the El Camino Junior College District until Aug. 1, when his retirement becomes effective, the educator will turn his duties over to Dr. Stuart E. Marsee of Pasadena on June 30, when he will leave for a month's vacation to become established in his new home.
